Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

3. Claim 6 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Applicant's admitted prior art.

Applicant's admitted prior art discloses a switching power supply circuit in Fig. 9. a switching element (20) provided with a source terminal, a drain terminal and a gate terminal, a power supply source (10) connected to the source terminal, a load (50) connected to the drain terminal, a control circuit (100) connected to the gate terminal, an inductor disposed in a current path from the drain terminal to the load; a first current detection resistor (70, 80) disposed in a current path from the source terminal to the load; a first comparator (110) connected to the first current detection resistor, a second current detection resistor (point of contact that measures I – H) disposed in a current path from the drain terminal to the ground terminal; and a second comparator (120) connected to the second current detection resistor.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-5 and 8 are allowed over the cited prior art.
5. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: None of the cited prior art of record disclose or teach a switching power supply detecting with flywheel current detecting means that the flywheel current has reached a second reference value and turning on the switching element during the over current protection operation at a timing of the clock pulse after the flywheel current detected by the flywheel current detecting means has reached the second reference value.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
